

ANAM: PROGRESS MADE IN LIBERIA SINCE September 2018

AN IDEAL HOME FOR ANAM

We have leased the Brewo House in Monrovia to run our programs. This facility houses our office, a music library, a practice room, two classrooms, and a storage area.

Support the ANAM's Music Library Project

ANAM needs $10,000 to establish and construct an Academic Music Library. The Library will provide information and foster personal development in the Liberian community. It will be constructed and dedicated in ANAM's new domicile, the Brewo House, on Randall Street, opposite Power Tech. The facility houses a space for offices, a music library, a practice room, two classrooms, and a storage area. The music library section includes an office, a large room which hosts the books and other music materials and a reading/listening lab room.

Support the J.E.M Girls Music Scholarship Fund

The J.E.M Scholarship Fund was established by the children of the late Juanita Neal, who was a patron and lover of the arts. The scholarship supports adolescent females to become accomplished musicians, teachers, researchers, and performers. The total cost per student for the nine-month certificate program, is $160.00. Please consider supporting the young girls of Liberia.

Immediate Needs

ANAM needs to purchase additional furniture, instruments, and equipment for its classrooms and practice rooms. ANAM Board of Directors is working diligently to address these needs but funds are limited and are not enough to foot the cost of these additional items to keep up with the increased enrollment of students this semester. ANAM is requesting sponsorship in money and or in kind.

Need-Based Scholarship Fund

Please consider supporting our need-based scholarship fund. This fund supports talented students from low-income communities who are passionate about the arts but do not have any means of support. The total cost per student for the nine-month certificate program in music, is $160.00. Please consider supporting a student.
